

Begin or develop a K-12 CHINESE or ARABIC program with the Teachers of Critical Languages Program

关键语言教师项目

برنامج معلمي اللغات الحرجة

The Teachers of Critical Languages Program (TCLP) places highly qualified English as a Foreign Language teachers from China, Egypt, and Morocco in U.S. K-12 host schools for an academic year, where they teach Mandarin Chinese or Arabic language and culture.

TCLP is a fully-funded program which provides teachers' salaries, healthcare, roundtrip airfare, training, professional development workshops, and ongoing program support.

Host schools provide mentorship and community support for TCLP teachers, who in turn bring schools and communities global awareness and understanding in addition to providing excellent language instruction.

Apply

Your school is eligible to apply for TCLP if it

- * is a U.S. K-12 school; and
- * is working toward starting a Mandarin Chinese or Arabic program, or growing an existing program.

U.S. schools can apply online at www.tclprogram.org

Contact Us

www.tclprogram.org
tclp@americancouncils.org
(202) 833-7522

Social Media

facebook.com/TCLProgram

@TCLProgram

The Teachers of Critical Languages Program is funded by the U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs and is implemented by American Councils for International Education.

Apply online at www.tclprogram.org by January 22, 2018